

66- Roddy McCorley

lyrics by Ethne Carbery
1898

O__ see the__ fleet foot host of men,__ who march with fa - ces

4 drawn; From farmstead and from fisher'scot, a - long the banks of Ban; They

9 come with venge - ance in their eyes. Too late! Too late are they, For 13 young Rod - dy Mc Cor - ley goes to die on the bridge of Toome to - day.

McCorley was hanged near Bridge of Toome on 28 february 1800.
His role in the 1798 rebellion is unclear.

<http://www.8notes.com/scores/6111.asp?ftype=midi>
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xkknuyEE498>
<http://www.irish-folk-songs.com/roddy-mccorley-lyrics-and-chords.html>
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Roddy\_McCorley